Testimonials

“ When i was asked to be a patron of HEROS I agreed straight away as I had followed the progress it had made in re-homing ex racehorses. These horses, some good racehorses – some not so good, each get an amazing amount of care in retraining them to be ridden as hunters, riding horses & just fun for people to be around. It is extremely pro-active in providing another life for racehorses which is so much better than them just being discarded. ”
